Published by the

Senior Class

Union Hill High School

Union City, N. J.

Foreword

Dear old Union, we say good-bye
It's time for us to part
But the ideals that you stand for
Live forever in our hearts.

With your true guiding spirit
Your traditions firm and true
You have given us the background
To form this Orange and Blue.

We'll never forget you, Union
Your torch will lead the way
And your memories will always be with us
Through each and every day.

And as we face the future
With ambitions to fulfill
Any success we may achieve
We'll owe to Union Hill.

Our Class History

AH yes, we were timid young Sophomores the day we stood at the entrance to Union Hill. We trembled in awe at the prospects of the future for the next three years. We looked at and listened to the lofty Seniors who were so sure of themselves and whom we dared not ask directions to our new home rooms. Those of us who had attended the Annex felt more reassured than the out-of-towners but still our confidence was a trifle unstable. We stumbled along to our rooms, gazing in bewilderment at the maze of rooms, stairs, and corridors; we wondered if we would ever become familiar with this seemingly terrifying place. Our first classes were frightening ordeals. At the first assembly bells, we gave up in hopeless despair the thought of ever knowing what was going on. In a daze we passed our first year at Union Hill, still fearing our teachers, studying our lessons and acquiring good marks.

We returned from vacation. How quickly we forgot that just a few months ago we had been sophomores, for we lost no time in taunting the incoming sophomores. This was the year we formed our class organization. It was then that we really began to feel important. Mrs. Elvira Rossi started us off with work immediately and we knew, or thought we knew, the workings of the senior machine. We gave our first dance—"The Jr. A Bobby Sox Parade," which, much to our astonishment, was quite a success. This was followed in our second term by the "Jr. B Juke Box Jump," our second big hit as Juniors. Yes, by this time we had learned a few things. We no longer thought that school was all work; that our teachers were frightening "creatures" and that good marks were the only important factors. Once again vacation caught up with us.

It was September! Only ten months of school left. Yes, we were now those lofty Seniors, and we reacted just as every other Senior class has done in the past. We condescended to speak to the Juniors, snubbed the Sophomores, and completely ignored the Freshmen. By this time, we had lost some of our boys to the Armed Forces. Somehow, they seemed to leave an empty space in our crowded plans. Slowly we began to realize that we had better get to work if we expected to graduate in June. Our grades took a noticeable jump for the better. After sending the Senior B's off with the Starlight Promenade, work was hurriedly begun on our Yearbook. The staff was selected; the various assignments and responsibilities undertaken; our rings were ordered; our graduation pictures were taken. We really were Senior B's. Our school days bowed out to the tune of the Hawaiian Reception, tendered us by the class of January, 1947. The melodies we danced to will continuously recall to mind memories of our Senior Prom. A certain nostalgia and longing for the good old days crept over us as we faced the uncertain future, but we were expectant of the best. So thus we close behind us the familiar doors of Union Hill. We shall be everlastingly grateful for all she has given us in knowledge, friendships and understanding. Our years at Union Hill will always remain as part of our most cherished memories.

Seniors in Service

THESE boys departed from our ranks during the last two years to become the esteemed servicemen of our class of June 1946. Our appreciation and gratitude for their sacrifices in helping to win and hold the hard-fought-for peace could never be expressed in mere words. Through this honor we bestow, it is hoped that we are repaying in some way the enormous debt we owe to them.

May this page serve as a lasting tribute to these servicemen of the class of June 1946.

Met Welcomes New Star

by RAY (Scoop) SNYDER

Last night at the Metropolitan Opera House, a new comer, Corinne Vozza, stole the show as "Elsa" in "Lohengrin." Kay Connolly, eminent artist, who attended the opera, described Miss Vozza's voice as sensational. Otto Huetsch, well known man about town, and Henry Iggena, vice president of General Motors Corporation, also raved about Miss Vozza's voice. After the performance, a party was given in the star's honor by Rosalie Severino. Miss Severino, whom critics hail as one of the best concert pianists of the time, is staying in North Hudson with friends. At the party, advertising executive, Robert Butler acted as toastmaster. His references to high school life jogged the memory of everyone including another speaker, Kenneth Birdsall, president of the New York Accountants Club. It seems that many of the people attending were members of the same high school class.

Bill Cronk and his famous swing orchestra entertained. Joe Sugar with his "hot trumpet" and Josephine DelGuidice, rising band vocalist, were surprise soloists. Some of the notables seen at the party were: Jacqueline Stern, recently voted one of the world's 10 best dressed women;

SPORTS

by ERNIE (On the Spot) SEEMAN

The Yankees won an exhibition today behind the 3 hit pitching of Dutch Claeyssens and the hitting of veteran catcher, Flory Danish, and centerfielder, "Jolting Joe" Murphy. The Yankees beat by a score of 19-1, a team composed of stars from the professional National Basketball League. Dave Morrison, Bones Karmiller, Carmine Deer, Mike De Phillips, Fred Heilman, John Kanaske, Harvey Dwork, Don Tierney and Richie Rienzo kept the packed stadium laughing if not interested. The game, played just for laughs, was a lot of fun.

BOSTON (MASS.)—Two more valuable players were signed by the new International Football League this morning when John Biango and Ed Einarsen signed contracts in the office of the League president, Vincent Matera.

Frank Costantino, who plays juvenile roles at M.G.M.; Nelda Marini, Miss New Jersey of 1955; Smiling George Allen, Pepsodent ad model; Gene Chinery, new comic, starring in Broadway's latest stage hit, and Gloria Janssen, Pat Ortell and Evelyn Froehner, Conover Models.

EINSTEIN THEORY DISPROVED

PRINCETON (N. J.)—In a dispatch released today by the heads of Princeton's research and experimental staff, the Einstein Theory of Relativity, long accepted, was branded as slipshod and full of errors. The disbelieving scientists, J. Newton Milliken, Charles Bechtold, Wilbur Pawson and Herbert Fink, said they first started to doubt Mr. Einstein's theory when they found some mistakes in it at the time Mr. Alvin H. Schaediger was teaching it to them back in their high school physics classes.

RIOT PREVENTED

NEW YORK (N. Y.)—With a mistake that brought on a near riot, the Waldorf had a hard time regaining its dignity this afternoon. The Beta Sorority, which had hired the Waldorf's Ball Room for a meeting at 3 p. m., caused quite a commotion when they saw that another group had command of the Ball Room. Through some mistake which the Waldorf management finally explained to the Sorority, someone had allowed the Ball Room to be rented out twice for the same date. When the Beta Sorority found out that the other group was a reunion of the Union Hill Class of June '46, they forgave the management and joined the reunion. This was possible because some of the Sorority's members had graduated with this class.

Seniors at Play

WE LEARN FAST!

Freshmen	Sophomores	Juniors	Seniors
Notes should be kept in ink in a notebook.	Notes should be typewritten.	Notes should be kept in pencil.	Why keep notes at all?
Knows nothing concerning the books of Karl Marx and Shakespeare.	Knows nothing concerning the books of Karl Marx.	Knows nothing concerning books.	Knows nothing.
Geometry deals with "right" angles.	Geometry has few "square" deals.	Geometry drives you in circles.	Geometry is just a "Plane" pain.
It's healthful to walk to school.	Might as well use the new bicycle.	The bus is handy as well as energy-saving.	No use letting Dad's car get rusty.
We must study tomorrow.	We must study tomorrow.	We must study tomorrow.	Tomorrow is another day.
Freshmen have it all over Grammar School students.	Sophomores have it all over Freshmen.	Nothing like being a Junior.	The privileged Senior is tops.
Nice new lockers are for books only.	Such a lot can be put into lockers.	Why be tidy? Just throw them in.	Look out, avalanche.
She likes sophomore fellows.	She likes eleventh grade fellows.	She likes out of town fellows.	She likes fellows.
The prom is not for us.	The prom is for sophisticated Seniors.	The prom is a necessary expense.	The prom means father takes the bus.
Oh! assemblies.	Assemblies are educational.	Assemblies are getting better.	Assemblies mean no work first period.
Never be tardy.	Being tardy is shameful.	Being tardy means getting a bawling out.	Being tardy means time off first period.
The O & B is just another book.	The O & B is the Seniors' yearbook.	The O & B is 75 cents.	The O & B is a lot of work.

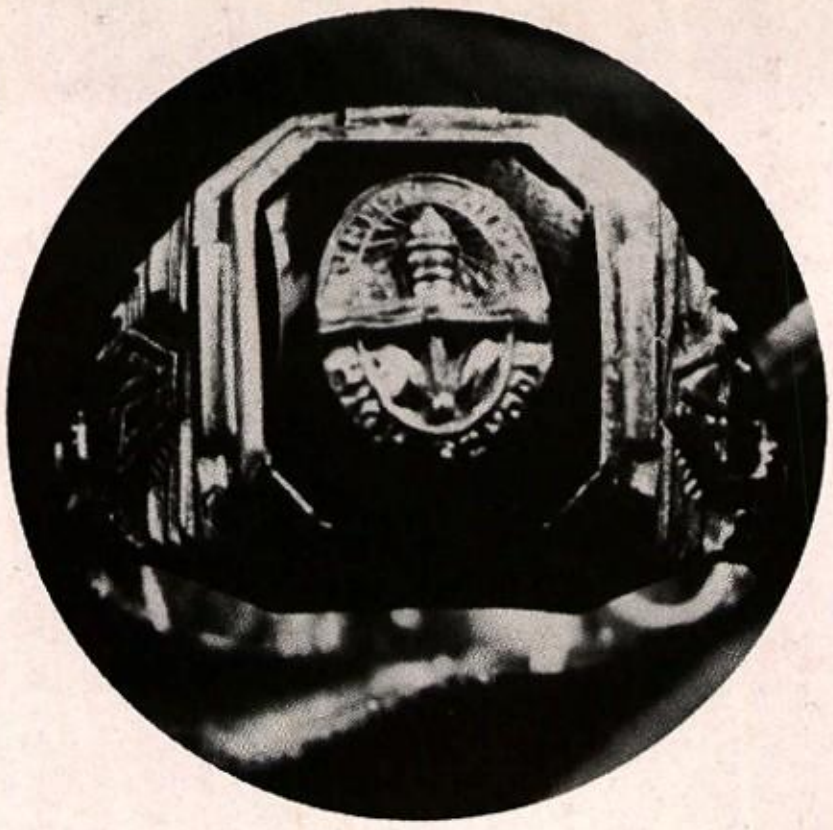
Queen of the Starlight Promenade

Miss Jean Grafeld



Rising at an early hour,
Racing to catch a bus
In snow, sleet, or shower—
It's always the same fuss.

Striving for those B's and A's
Never neglecting fun,
Attending various sport relays,
Kidding with everyone.

Whispering when not allowed,
Chewing gum on the sly,
Committing acts we've been avowed
Never again to try.

Taking part in the noon day dance
That provides so much fun
Discussing a school romance
Which seems to have begun.

Waiting for seventh period to end
Hoping to "be saved by the bell",
Eager to share with a friend
News that's new to tell.

Activities after 3:15
Which you're anxious to attend—
Socials, chats, a happy scene
You wish would never end.

Years that cannot be retraced,
The best part of our teens;
Where our efforts have been placed—
That's what high school means.

These events and others too
Will with us always stay,
In our lives the things we do
Will reflect upon today.

CLASS OF JANUARY, 1947

IT has been an exceptionally active semester for those peppy Senior A's. On March 7 they sponsored an Alumni-Varsity basketball game; a huge success financially and socially. March 15 will long be remembered for the marvelous time everyone enjoyed at the St. Patty's Dance. The attractive Union Hill kerchiefs the girls are sporting are products of the Sr. A's, too.

June 14, the evening of the Sr. Reception, marks the end of a highly successful semester for this dynamic group. The Hawaiian atmosphere of the Reception; the music of a name band; the beautiful gowns and girls; all are memories which will linger in the minds of all who attended the party.

The orchestra can always be expected to turn in an ear-pleasing and delightful performance. We hope the group will continue as successfully as they have during this term.

Mixed Chorus

WE extend our sincere and heartfelt thanks to the Mixed Chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Weyant, for their earnest cooperation in making our assemblies more entertaining. To them, the boys and girls who constitute the Mixed Chorus, will come continued success with their music in the future.

President . . . . . RONALD DIETRICH
Secretary . . . . . BERT TERHUNE
Faculty Adviser . . . . . MRS. ELIZABETH WEYANT

Girls' Glee Club

THE Girls' Glee Club, a group consisting of sixty girls, has lent beauty to our various assemblies, notably the Christmas festival. This group was first organized in 1925. Without them, the assemblies would lack the final touch which music always adds.

We know their good work will continue in the future under the capable guidance of Mrs. Weyant.

Union Hill Singers

THE Union Hill Singers, organized 3 years ago, consists of members of the Mixed Chorus chosen by Mrs. Weyant. Their mellow voices and perfect harmony reveal their unusual ability. This group has promising talent, as shown by their performances at various assemblies.

Advanced Art Group

THE Advanced Art Group, organized by Miss Nesslage five years ago for the purpose of teaching to pupils the advanced techniques of art, will miss her excellent guidance in the future. Miss Nesslage will retire from school this month. We are sure that we will never be able to forget her able leadership. Through her untiring efforts, the Advanced Art Group has risen to a position of high esteem, especially in oil paintings.

May we take this opportunity of congratulating Miss Nesslage for her excellent work and wishing her continued success.

Junior Red Cross

THE Junior Red Cross, under the excellent guidance of Mrs. Dwyer, has received renown for its cooperation in many drives held this year. Its work, in regard to the Thanksgiving Baskets, Servicemen's Kits, Infantile Paralysis Drive, Cancer Drive, etc., is highly commendable.

The group has worked silently, making their worth felt rather than heard, and we are sure this will continue in the future.

COACH DICK FLANAGAN deserves much praise for his work in developing this year's football team. Although at the beginning of the season he had only three lettermen returning, he succeeded in molding his varsity around Captain John Biango, the only holdover with any previous experience. By placing the emphasis on "teamwork" Coach Flanagan received splendid results. The lack of experience was something that could not be overcome in such a short time, but our boys were in there fighting all the way.

Seniors on the team were Captain John Biango, Carmine Deer, Edwin Einarsen, Joe Murphy, Ken Birdsall, Bob Degen, John Claeyssens, and Herman Herb.

Basketball

THE basketball team, coached by Mr. George Faltings, gained itself high standings in county and state competition as well as in the minds of its followers.

Captain Dave Morrison, only starter from last year's state finalists, was the hub of the team. However, the boys did not leave it all up to Dave as was proved by the splendid record that they compiled.

We want to wish the best of luck to next year's basketball team in keeping Union Hill up where she belongs . . . "With the Leaders."

Seniors on the squad were Captain Dave Morrison, Carmine Deer, Harvey Karmiller, Mike De Phillips, John Kanaske, Fred Heilman, Harvey Dwork, Don Tierney, Richie Rienzo, and manager, Vinnie Matera.

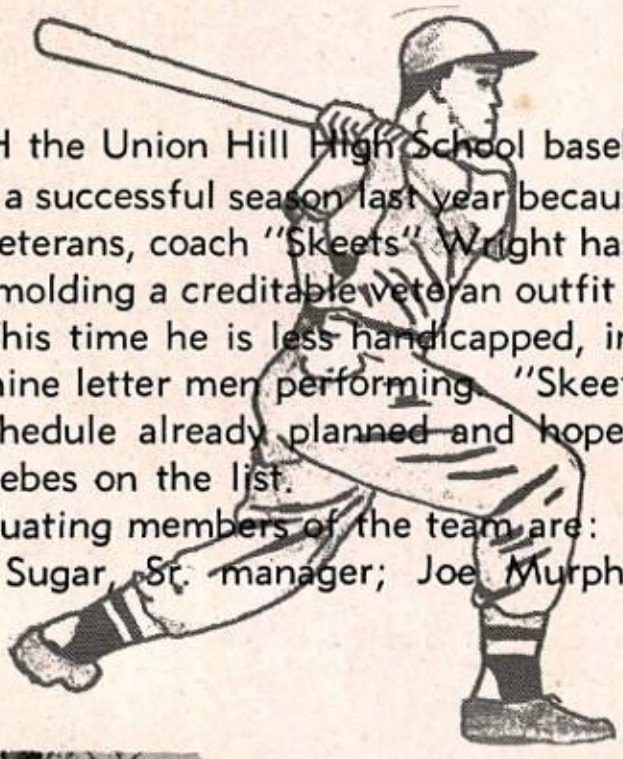
Baseball



ALTHOUGH the Union Hill High School baseball team did not enjoy a successful season last year because of the lack of sufficient veterans, coach "Skeets" Wright has done an excellent job in molding a creditable veteran outfit for this coming season. This time he is less handicapped, in as much as there will be nine letter men performing. "Skeets" has a sixteen game schedule already planned and hopes to get the West Point Plebes on the list.

The graduating members of the team are: Flory Danish, captain; Joe Sugar, Sr. manager; Joe Murphy, and John Claeyssens.

Track

THE Union Hill High School Track Team this season, as in the past, has given our school a creditable outfit. Starting the season with a small squad of veterans, the team, under the able tutelage of coach A. F. Pardee, has worked hard and developed into a well seasoned outfit, participating in many county, state, city, and national contests. Chief among these were the University of Pennsylvania Relay Carnival, Ridgewood Relays, Bayertown, Pa. Track Carnival, Hoboken Track Meet, Perth Amboy Relays, Northern New Jersey Interscholastic Athletic Meet, New Jersey Interscholastic Athletic Association Meet, and the Union City Independence Day Track and Field Carnaval.

Graduating this June are Kenneth Birdsall, holder of one of the Northern New Jersey Javelin hurling records; Ernest Seeman, speedster; Helmut Hornung, distance runner; Donald McDonald, Sr. Manager; and also Gilbert Bandel, Robert Miller, and Fred Carlton.

OUR tennis team has completed a successful season under the noble assistance of its coach, Mr. Robert Modarelli. The team has added some newcomers and four senior B's are listed in its squad. Richard Graham is their playing manager and Harvey Karmiller, Captain. The first opening game with Dickinson was a four to one (4-1) victory and in all respects they had the showings of a fine team.

Other seniors on the team are Carmine Deer, and Sid Zaslavsky.

Girls' Basketball League

THE Girls' Basketball League under the supervision of Mrs. Anna Bock, reached a new high this year with eight teams participating. The schedules were played out with the result that the Starettes finished undefeated. Something new for the school happened when one of the girls' basketball teams played in the preliminary game of the Faculty vs. Varsity game. It is hoped that the teams will continue with the success they enjoyed this year.
